Thoughts from the President

Deanna Hofing, Indiana

Happy 70th Anniversary American Angus Auxiliary!! The American Angus Auxiliary participated in their first NJAS tailgate with a great reception from the attendees. To celebrate our 70th anniversary the team served over 600 slices of cake and 200 tattoos. This opportunity allowed us to interact with not only the juniors but also the parents in a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere. It is my hope we can continue our participation in future years as a way of connecting to Angus families on another level.

Another exciting first we have explored this summer was to broaden Miss American Angus's agriculture advocacy platform. Our team has been diligently collaborating with Danielle Matter at CAB and Mark McCully, CEO American Angus Association to define how Miss American Angus can make a greater impact outside the showing. In June Mary Wood, the current Miss American Angus, attended a CAB large retail farm event in which she interacted with attendee's by giving them insight into the Miss American Angus program, the American Angus Auxiliary, and the American Angus Association. This event went fantastic and catapulted her into another CAB event that presented an opportunity to discuss the American Angus Auxiliary mission.

This year marks the 7th Annual Full Circle Online Auction (FCOA). The online auction will be held November 10th, 2022, hosted by www.AngusLive.com. Proceeds will support the Auxiliary's mission, including breed promotion, beef education, and youth development through programs, awards, and scholarships. With the consignments this year, it should be another immense success!

Finally, to commemorate our 70th anniversary achievement and fundraise for the Auxiliary programs, a one-of-a-kind piece commissioned by CJ Brown. This amazing work of art was unveiled at the National Junior Angus show and is titled, "The Matriarch's of the Angus Breed." This painting not only allows us to celebrate the great Angus Auxiliary leadership over the last 70 years with their names painted on each leaf but also containing the most influential Angus females to date in the Angus Breed. In November, at the Auxiliary Breakfast during Angus Convention, the original framed painting and five artists proofs will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Please consider taking this opportunity to assist the auxiliary mission of supporting Angus juniors as well as acquiring a unique piece of art for your Angus memorabilia collection.

It has been an honor to be the president on the 70th anniversary of the American Angus Auxiliary. I am proud of this team's accomplishments. Thanks to all the ladies for their support, advice, and guidance. Here's to 70 more years!!

CJ Brown Painting Unveiled

The American Angus Auxiliary is so excited to offer this beautiful, one-of-a-kind painting by CJ Brown. This piece is in honor of the Auxiliary's 70th Anniversary and includes 29 of the top Angus cow families as well as all 68 past presidents. The original painting, along with 5 custom artist proofs, will be auctioned off at the Auxiliary Breakfast on Sunday, November 6th at the National Angus Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah. Don't miss your chance to bid on this one of a kind piece!

Can't wait until November? Currently, we are having pre-sales on numbered prints. They are $130 per print shipped to you to arrive before Christmas! Visit 70th Anniversary CJ Brown Painting Request or use the provided QR code to reserve your print today!

From your Regional Directors

Howdy from Region 2! | Region 2 | Amy Griffin, Texas

Hi, I'm Amy Griffin from Olton, Texas. I am rounding out my two year term as Regional Director for Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma. The past year has been full of memories for the American Angus Auxiliary as we celebrated the 70th anniversary of the Auxiliary! How amazing and exciting is that?!!

As we approach the National Angus Convention being held in Salt Lake City, Utah, we look back on the amazing year so far. We started off the year of celebration with a Kick-Off Party held in Ft. Worth, Texas, during convention. We had a live auction for five spectacular items and we deemed the event a HUGE success. We continued the year with a Women's Connected Conference held in Excelsior Springs, Missouri. We got to hear from Courtney DeHoff and others about the importance of women in the industry. Next up on the road of celebration was a Taste of Kansas social hour prior to the Mid-Year meeting that was held at the National Junior Angus Show in Kansas City, Missouri. At the conclusion of the meeting, a breathtaking painting done by CJ Brown was unveiled. The original painting will be auctioned off at the Auxiliary Breakfast during the Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah, in November. There are numbered prints available for purchase for $130 shipped. Please contact me to place your order today!

Although my time as Regional Director has come to an end, the friendships and knowledge I have gained will stay with me for the years to come. I am honored to have been able to serve this great organization for the best breed of cattle in the world. In May, I accepted the position of Auxiliary Bookkeeper, so I will still be very involved with the organization.

Greetings from the Tar Heel State! | Region 4 | Christy Perdue, North Carolina

As I write this, we are coming to the end of the Summer season and Fall is right around the corner! I love everything that Fall brings, including cooler temperatures, mums and pumpkins galore, fair season, and this year, the 70th Anniversary celebration for the American Angus Auxiliary! After an amazing kickoff celebration at the Cowgirl Hall of Fame in Fort Worth, Texas, last November, we look forward to capping off the 70th Anniversary in Salt Lake City during the 2022 National Angus Convention! We hope that you will make plans to join us in Utah as we celebrate, welcome old and new friends, and carry on the mission we started 70 years ago! Our annual breakfast will feature the auctioning of the beautiful, one-of-a-kind original print by C.J. Brown that was commissioned for the American Angus Auxiliary in celebration of our 70th year! "The Matriarchs of the Angus Breed" features 29 of the top Angus cow families in addition to our 68 American Angus Auxiliary Presidents. In addition to the original print, artist proofs will be auctioned off as well!

As we look forward to closing out our 70th year, we also look back on all we have accomplished and enjoyed this year! In addition to our kickoff celebrations during the 2021 National Angus Convention, we enjoyed a wonderful Women Connected Conference in Excelsior Springs, Missouri in conjunction with our Executive Board Spring meeting. This summer we gathered in Kansas City for the National Junior Angus Show. In addition to the unveiling of the our 70th Anniversary C.J. Brown print, we hosted a wonderful midyear meeting, supported our royalty at a beautiful royalty reception, assisted with the Cook Off, and presented multiple scholarships and awards.

In addition to serving as your Region Four Director, I have had the pleasure of serving on the Full Circle Online Auction committee for the last two years. We have worked hard this year to bring to you an exciting and unique set of items...there is something for everyone! Stay tuned to our Facebook page and our website for further updates and a full list of items. Our online auction will take place on November 10 on Angus Live. A big thank you to all our consigners and our future bidders!

I have thoroughly enjoyed my first full year as your Region Four Director! While this position has allowed for many fun adventures with a wonderful group of ladies, my biggest goal remains supporting and helping to grow the Auxiliaries within our Region. While some state auxiliaries have been able to carry on and remain active, other auxiliaries have found themselves in a time of transition or a time of disbanding. No matter where you find your state, I encourage you to reach out to your Regional Director for support, encouragement, inspiration, and leadership. I am happy to help in anyway that I can. I was fortunate enough to host a leadership workshop for the North Carolina Angus Auxiliary this summer. It was a fun way to encourage teamwork and to acknowledge each member as an important part of our organization and what makes it work. I look forward to being able to share this information with other states in the coming year!

Greetings from the Northeast! | Region 6 | Valerie Trowbridge, Pennsylvania

We had a true Winter, a nice Spring and a dry, hot Summer. The MAJAC show was held in March in Virginia. I was able to attend our Spring meeting and Bi-annual Women Connected Conference in Excelsior Springs, MO. We all had so much fun getting to know each other and learning from the presenters at the conference and in the mixology class. I attended the Atlantic National ROV show, which was back at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, MD. Then in June, Virginia hosted a wonderful 50th Eastern Regional Jr. Angus show. On to Kansas City, MO for the Greatest Show on Dirt. It was so good to be out there and visit with the Angus Family. The Auxiliary Social was delightful featuring things from the Kansas City area. It was very well attended.

The Auxiliary is geared up for the Full Circle online Auction to be held in November after the Convention. Be sure and check out the items and bid. I recommend putting the link for this auction in your state's newsletters, so people know where to bid. Check out the leather Jewelry box with Navajo bead hoop earrings with it, donated by the Pennsylvania Angus Auxiliary. Also consider consigning an item to a future Auction.

Christmas is just around the corner. Don't forget about the Angus Gift Barn and Gifts That Sizzle. You will be helping the Auxiliary to support the Angus breed and its youth.

Be sure and have your junior members fill out the Certificate of Achievement award application. You can find the form under the leadership and awards tab on the Auxiliary Web site. Applications are due November 1.

I will be traveling to Salt Lake City Utah for the Angus Convention and Auxiliary meetings. I look forward to seeing many of you there! If you need anything any other time of the year, please reach out to me via phone or email.

Meet the Candidates for Regional Director Positions

Full Candidate Bio's can be viewed on the website.

Region 1: Cindy Worthington, California

Cindy and her husband Brad have a small purebred operation concentrating on raising and marketing show heifers. She does seasonal work throughout the year at Vintage Angus Ranch in Modesto where she works on sale pictures, runs the Facebook and Instagram pages, and does all the videoing and editing of sale cattle. This is her 18th year working at the VAR bull sale. She is currently working on the daily care and halter breaking of the spring heifers.

Cindy and her husband are both active in the California Angus Association, this year they served as Junior Advisors for California at the NJAS. They are both active in the Western States Angus Association and work hard to promote and facilitate the Western National Angus Futurity. Cindy is a Board Member of the California Cattlewoman's Association where she has served as Scholarship and Fundraising Chair. Cindy and Brad have four adult children and come from strong livestock backgrounds. They enjoy the Angus community and giving back to the youth.

Region 2: Megan Ahearn, Texas

Megan is the daughter of Cindy and Mark Ahearn at Turner Meadow Ranch in Wills Point, TX. She's been raising Angus cattle since she was 6 years old, and counts herself very fortunate to have "grown up in Angus". Megan has been involved in agriculture and breed organizations at the state, regional, and national level holding leadership positions in each. She's actively involved in her state Auxiliary, using this route to give back to junior members. Megan graduated from The University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor's in Business Administration in 2014. She works as a project manager for the nation's largest nonprofit healthcare system. She is passionate about creating opportunities for the next generation of Angus leaders in addition to fostering fellowship amongst Angus cattlemen.

Region 3: Stacy Erdmann, North Dakota

Stacy Erdmann is a 1st generation Registered Angus Seedstock producer along with her husband and 2 daughters, Rylee & Kaylee. Stacy carries the passion of Faith, Family and Angus Cattle on their operation in Southeastern North Dakota. It started with her Great Grandfather Alex Rotenberger who transitioned from Hereford cattle to Angus Cattle early on, then her grandfather Charles Rotenberger started into the registered seed-stock business, followed by her dad who continued to raise Purebred Angus Cattle as a commercial cow-calf operation along with a 200 head feedlot. Growing up she saw the passion her dad had for raising and feeding quality Angus Steers, her favorite part of the year besides calving season would be when her dad would sit down and go through the carcass data after they had sold their steers on the Grid. Now she is proud to be raising her daughters alongside her husband Jeremy on their own Registered Angus operation and showing them the ropes of being an Angus Cattlewoman. Stacy's side passion is also horses and teaching students with disabilities how to ride, she has helped co-found the organization Riding For Dreams and has been providing adaptive riding lessons within their community since 2009.

Proposed Changes to the By-Laws

The By-Laws & Legislation Committee would like to submit the following suggested changes to the American Angus Auxiliary By-laws for the membership's vote at its 2022 Annual Meeting. Per our by-laws, the suggested changes were announced at the Auxiliary's Mid-Year Meeting on July 6, 2022 in Kansas City, Missouri.

Section 4.2.4 - Appoint Special Committees as authorized by the Auxiliary Council.

Change "Auxiliary Council" to "Executive Board". This committee agrees with the suggested change.

Section 4.2.7 - Appoint members to fill vacancies in the officer and regional director positions with approval of the Auxiliary Council.

Change "Auxiliary Council" to "Executive Board". This committee agrees with the suggested change.

Section 7.1 - There shall be the following standing committees and in addition such other committees as deemed necessary to carry on the work of the Auxiliary. The committees will report their activities and any recommended actions related to their committee to the Auxiliary Council.

Change "Auxiliary Council" to "membership" as the reports are posted on the website after each meeting. This committee agrees with the suggested change.

Tensions are high, costumes are flying, and smoke fills the air. During a week where most time is spent in the barn, this scenario only means one thing, it was cookoff time. During the 2022 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), Certified Angus Beef® (CAB®), the Angus Auxiliary and the National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) teamed up to host the annual CAB Cook-Off contest in Kansas City, Missouri on July 5, 2022.

The contest was founded in 1983, in Des Moines, Iowa, to encourage Angus juniors to practice their beef education skills. Today, it is one of the biggest contests of the NJAS. Participants are encouraged to have a theme for their presentation that includes costumes and a delicious meal. For the beef portion of the contest, participants are tasked with creating a dish using CAB branded beef in one of three categories: steak, roast or other beef items. Teams of four are created as a state and then placed into groups by age: 8-13, 14-17 and 18-21. The oldest member of the team determines the group division.

The contest is a fun event with plenty of educational opportunities. Cook-off judge and editor of the Angus Journal, Julie Mais believes in the value of the contest as it "showcases the knowledge and creativity of Angus youth all in one contest. To be able to explain beef industry topics to consumers, like the 10 CAB specifications and how those guarantee a high-quality product, is a valuable skill."

During the 2022 contest, over 34 teams competed for the Black Kettle Award also known as the overall team. In honor of Paul St. Blanc, an avid Angus breeder and cook-off enthusiast, the award went to the intermediate team from Nebraska. Addison Cotton, JessaLynn Hudson, Kasey Meyer, Tucker Stagemeier and Tavin Uden secured the big win with their Grand Champion Angus Barbeque. The team cooked a CAB ball tip roast seasoned with mustard, Worcestershire sauce, liquid smoke and cayenne pepper before it was drizzled with a sweet and spicy sauce.

Additionally, the top junior team from Oklahoma was awarded the Ardyce's Apron award. The top junior team consisted of team members Jake Allison, Denton Cook, Kade Henrichs, Bentley Lott, Madilyn Norvell and Blaykee Stelzer. This group of cooks grilled a ball tip roast with Oklahoma red-dirt butter. Not only did their meal wow the judges, but their skit about Oklahoma farmers and ranchers visiting with food bloggers also impressed them.

"I enjoy seeing each team's hard work and preparation come together," said Mais. "The skits are just as unique as the recipes they create – and the beef entrées are always delicious."

The cook-off contest creates some friendly competition for all juniors, even those not showing cattle. Beyond the competition, the CAB Cook-off Contest is a family event that educates juniors on retail beef as they have fun with their presentations.

2022 Miss American Angus - Mary Wood, North Carolina

Wow! What an exciting summer it has been. I have spent the past few months traveling to various shows and other events all across the country. While I have been very busy, every minute has been filled with something new and exciting!

I started off my summer in Timonium, Maryland at the Atlantic National Show. This show has always held a special place in my heart. It is the first show I attended as North Carolina state royalty, making it very fitting and rewarding to come back as the 2022 Miss American Angus. Not only did I perform the typical show day duties of Miss American Angus, I was also invited to speak at the royalty luncheon. Here I was able to get to know many girls that I would be seeing the rest of the summer!

Next, I headed to Louisville, Kentucky for the All-American Angus Breeders Futurity. This was my first time attending this show! I loved being able to meet with juniors and recognize the great history behind the show. Everyone there was so welcoming and helpful.

I then headed into the busiest week of the summer. Later that week, I attended two different Certified Angus Beef events in order to represent the American Angus Auxiliary. The first event was a field day held at Springfield Angus, right in my home state! At this event, I was able to educate many retail and packer employees on what goes into an Angus operation each day. I believe that this truly made an impact on the information that is relayed to the consumers in the grocery store.

Following this event, I headed to the Lowe's Foods in Winston Salem, North Carolina the next day. Here, I worked with the Certified Angus Beef marketing team and was interviewed. I also met with the employees who were working on their Certified Angus Beef training. While talking to them I explained the importance of the Angus breed and what my role was the 2022 Miss American Angus.

The following weekend I headed off to Chatham, Virginia for the 50th Eastern Regional Junior Angus Show. Here I performed the duties of MAA, showed my heifer and spoke at the queen's luncheon. While this week was very busy, it was very exciting. I loved being able to both work at junior shows, but also focus on the industry and the consumer side of the breed. It is so rewarding to know that I have educated people about Angus cattle and the role they play in their lives.

In July I headed off to The Biggest Show on Dirt, the National Junior Angus Show. This was held in Kansas City, Missouri. This is where I attended my first junior national and was first impacted by Miss American Angus. It was so special to come back to the place where it all started, and be a role model for many other younger girls. I spent the week passing out ribbons, with the help of many state royalty. It was so great to spend every day getting to know so many girls and hear about their passion for the Angus breed.

Next stop is Salt Lake City, Utah! I will head there in November to pass off the Miss American Angus title to another deserving young lady! It is bittersweet to think about this past year and that it is coming to an end so quickly. The opportunities that this role has provided me are priceless. I am so grateful for the people who have helped me throughout the past year. The memories I have made as the 2022 Miss American Angus will be treasured forever. See y'all at Angus Convention!

Through the Barn Door

Lauren Patteson, AGB Manager/Ways & Means, Chairman

The AGB enjoyed a successful and productive trip to Kansas City in July for the National Junior Angus Show. It was really enjoyable networking with so many old friends and new acquaintances. Recently, the Angus Gift Barn has been diligently working to create new products to stock in celebration of the 70th Auxiliary Anniversary. New items include leather engraved items, special cups and travel items, apparel, and stationary. Christmas items as well as old favorites are in the process of being re-ordered. We are very excited to see many of our customers at Angus Convention in Salt Lake City this November. Please do not hesitate to contact us for any product ideas and be sure to get your Christmas gifts ordered early!
